League of Women Voters of Portland Urges a
"YES" Vote on Measure 26-217

The League has been involved in police oversight since the early 1980s when one of our members served on the commission that recommended Portland's first police accountability system. We have continued to monitor the city's oversight agency since then.

We support the Community Police Oversight Board charter amendment for the following reasons:

It is an important first step towards a truly independent and empowered oversight system.

- The proposal includes the essential features of the independent civilian agency the community has been seeking for years.
- The measure acknowledges that additional steps must be taken in order for this vision to become a reality, including changes to state law and the police union contract.

The measure remedies the shortcomings of our current system.

- The current oversight agency does not have ready access to police bureau files nor does it have the authority to compel officer statements, investigate deadly force cases, or discipline officers.
- In a number of officer misconduct cases, findings and recommended discipline are determined behind closed doors by a board made up of a majority of police officials.

Once all the pieces are in place, we will have a vastly improved system independent from other city bureaus and elected officials. The new system will remedy the historical challenges to holding police accountable by having the authority to:

- Conduct independent investigations including police shootings, use of force, and discriminatory policing.
- Compel officer and witness testimony.
- Require submission of relevant documents.
- Make policy recommendations to the police bureau requiring a response with a final decision by City Council.

The measure commits the oversight board to conducting its business at meetings open to the public and emphasizes transparency and regular reporting. The League believes democracy depends upon informed and active participation in government and the public's right to know.

Vote "YES" on Measure 26-217 for Accountability and Transparency.

VOTE YES FOR POLICE REFORM VIA CITY CHARTER UPGRADE

Portland Gray Panthers urges a yes vote for police reform! In the city charter (constitution) police oversight can only be changed by the people's vote, so it is safe from mayors/ council members paid or scared by cops.

Before this, police who killed unarmed Portlanders had no lasting discipline – some got promoted since the police “police” and defend themselves, destroy/withhold evidence and tamper with witnesses. For the first time we could have a truly independent, trustworthy, effective body with the power to subpoena and compel officers to answer questions, investigate deadly force cases, collect evidence, interview witnesses, discipline officers, change police policies/ directives, and include transparency with public hearings.

Sections of it can be enforced law regardless of other sections affected by any changes in state law, the collective bargaining contract, and possibly federal labor law.

As long as there are police, we have to find ways to minimize the harm they are doing to the community and hold them accountable when they do that harm. Vote yes to start that process and form a framework for further police accountability to ever better serve and protect Portlanders, everyone's rights, our environment, and a just/merciful regenerative economy that works for everyone.

We also want the wisdom, knowledge, expertise, integrity, and passionate courageous commitment of those who have been doing this work over the last several decades, such as Dan Handleman and Portland Copwatch, the volunteers of the Citizens Review Board for the so-called Independent Review Board, the Portland Committee for Community-Engaged Policing, the Police Reform Network, the Pacific Northwest Family Circle (whose loved ones were shot/killed by local police), Critical Resistance, and the National Lawyers Guild of Oregon to participate in the transition from the existing hamstrung groups to the new much-improved process.

Submitted by Lew Church, Portland Gray Panthers

DIRECTOR

Sarah Iannarone Urges Passage of Real Police Accountability

Portland, this is the right thing to do.

Like most people, I have seen and been appalled at the nationwide videos of violent police killing, maiming, and traumatizing community members. And it comes as no surprise that the officers involved will face little to no consequences. The regrettable truth is that our systems are currently incapable of holding officers accountable, even when misconduct is clearly documented.

This is unacceptable and we know that Portland is no exception. Portland's sons and daughters like Kendra James, Keaton Otis, Christopher Kalonji, Quanice Hayes, Andre Gladen, Koben Henriksen, and many others should still be with us. The Oregonian reviewed 40 fatal Portland police shootings and found the victims were disproportionately Black, and a majority had mental illnesses. Not one of the 65 officers who pulled a trigger were ultimately disciplined.

It's time for real oversight and accountability of our city's police force.

This charter referral is an important first step on the path to changing the culture of the police bureau and making sure that the community's values are reflected in the city's law enforcement. The public reporting of police complaints and how they are handled will help the community see trends and make effective changes.

I stand by the individuals and organizations, particularly leaders in Portland's Black community and faith community, who have been calling for these changes for over 30 years.

I urge you to join me in voting YES for real transparency and community oversight of Portland Police!

VOTE YES ON MEASURE 26-217, Police Oversight Board Charter Amendment

- To create a Portland Community Police Oversight Board (Board) with significant powers to investigate & discipline Police for excessive use of force, deaths in custody, Police misconduct, discrimination against protected classes and civil rights violations.
- The Board will have sufficient resources and power to conduct meaningful investigations (including to subpoena evidence and compel officer testimony).
- Funding for the Board will be NO LESS than 5% of the annual Portland Police Annual Operational Budget and will hire its own paid Director, Administrative Staff and Professional Investigators.
- The Board is to be composed of members representing those classes of community members which have been the historic victims of over-policing and deadly force and MAY NOT include current or previous law enforcement employees or their families.
- This new Board is truly independent from the Police Bureau and City Council: no city official nor law enforcement office shall have the power to limit or oversee the Independent judgement of the Board.
- The Board would have the final say on discipline for officers including termination and will directly impact the Police Bureau's policies and directives.

"We believe police should be held accountable ... An independent civilian agency must have explicit jurisdiction in deadly force cases and must have the ability to compel testimony and recommend discipline."

DIRECTOR'S OFFICE
20 SEP - 8 PM '20
RECEIVED

Portland,

We have a chance to make history this election by passing Real Police Accountability for our community after decades of unnecessary loss and suffering.

Measure 26-217 represents the culmination of years and years of work by Black Portlanders calling for justice and reform, and by the families of victims of Portland's tragic history of resorting to deadly force when encountering Portlanders with mental illness.

A recent article in the Oregonian, titled "Shots Fired," recounts and reminds us that of the last 40 people killed at the hands of Portland Police, 65 officers fired their weapons, and none were ultimately disciplined for their actions. Please take a moment to let that sink in. 65 officers fired their weapons, resulting in the deaths of 40 Portlanders, and no one lost their job or were disciplined in any way.

And let's consider the life altering consequences of the routine over policing of Black and brown Portlanders, causing devastating physical injuries, mental and emotional trauma, and permanent criminal records that prevent people from getting jobs or obtaining housing.

The Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King said, "The arc of the moral universe is long, but it bends towards justice." That arc is bending towards us in Portland right now and we must act.

I have been so gratified to see so many of you supporting the Black Lives Matter movement, especially since George Floyd's murder. Let's back that up with real change and send a strong signal to our city and our nation that no one should be killed because of the color of their skin or because they are struggling with mental illness.

Let's create a public safety system that values and protects each and every one of us.

Please join me in voting Yes on Measure 26-217 for Real Police Accountability!

Justice is within reach,

Jo Ann

Justice Cannot Wait
Vote YES for Community Oversight of Police

"We can never be satisfied as long as the Negro is the victim of the unspeakable horrors of police brutality." -Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. 1963

The Albina Ministerial Alliance Coalition for Justice & Police Reform has advocated for community oversight of Portland Police for decades and we are proud to have been part of designing this measure to achieve real police accountability.

We have witnessed the unspeakable horrors of daughters and sons killed by police officers who go on patrolling our communities with no serious investigations or repercussions for acting outside of policy, training, and common sense.

Through the campaign promises of politician after politician; through the public outcries following completely preventable killings; through countless hearings, testimonies, and boards; we are still waiting to see justice in our Police Bureau.

We have marched. We have rallied. We have done the slow, but important work of educating the community. One conversation, one sermon, one tearful vigil at a time, for decades.

Now is the moment Portland.

This measure is the best chance we have to make the structural changes to put the community truly in charge of our police force and ensure officers are held to the standards the community demands.

We know that police violence, while levied disproportionately against Black, Indigenous, Portlanders of Color, and those with mental illnesses, endangers people of every demographic and in every neighborhood in our city.

We ask that you join with us today and help bend the arc of history towards justice.

Families Of People Killed By Police Urge You to Vote YES for Police Accountability

The Pacific Northwest Family Circle (PNWFC) is a group of families whose loved ones were unnecessarily killed by police. Sadly, our membership continues to grow. Families and community are hurt by these losses and feel unsafe because of the police.

PNWFC strongly supports police accountability and this historic effort. This measure will allow the community to supervise police in a way that is fair to police and also to the community. Families know that no matter the circumstances, police are never held accountable for killing Loved Ones in 99% of the cases. We need a system to discipline and fire violent officers before they kill more Loved Ones.

Independence – Appointed members will serve on the board independent of the police bureau. This would end the current conflict of interest where only police investigate themselves. The City Council can end the current boards anytime with nothing to replace them. This new system can only be removed by voters.

Sufficient powers and resources - The proposed board will be able to compel officers to testify, issue their own subpoenas, and recommend policies. Policies must be adopted by the Police Bureau or voted on by City Council. The board's budget will follow the trend of the police budget. If the police force grows, so does the power of community to ensure accountability.

Enforceable legal action against police - Most importantly, the new board will give the community real power to discipline officers. This can change the culture of policing to reduce misconduct. We believe with discipline that really sticks, police will be less likely to kill or harm Loved Ones.

Lastly, THIS DOES NOT RAISE TAXES!

Over 40 people have been killed by the Portland Police Bureau since 1992. Help PNWFC stop police violence. Let's give power to the people and take action towards PEACE NOT POLICE!

Faith Leaders Support Real Police Accountability

We are living in very troubled times, which ask all of us to respond with strength, courage, and compassion. As faith leaders, we are taught when there is trouble you go right to the heart of it because if one of us suffers, we all suffer.

We have millions of people in our country today and thousands of our neighbors here in Portland who suffer daily because they are afraid of their future, or afraid that they and their families will have no future because of an unjust and racially biased police culture.

In this election Portland has an opportunity to take a stand for justice and take a large step forward in changing our broken system of policing.

Leaders in Portland's Black community have been asking for this change for more than half a century, and they have been joined for decades by the families of Portlanders with mental illness, who along with Black Portlanders are the most likely to be killed by Portland police.

We stand with the AMA Coalition for Justice and Police Reform and with the Pacific Northwest Family Circle in supporting Real Police Accountability and we encourage you to do the same.

Please vote Yes on Measure 26-217. Lives depend on it.

A New Community Model to Investigate and Discipline Police Officers Accused of Misconduct

Portland has never had meaningful independent oversight of our police force. Existing police oversight systems are unable to effectively collect evidence, interview witnesses, affect police policies, demand transparency, or discipline officers. The communities in Portland who are most impacted by disproportionate policing and systemic racism have been excluded from the systems designed to hold police accountable. In order for Portland to meet the demands of activists in our city and across the country, we demand a truly representational police accountability system.

Leaders in Portland's Black community have been asking for this change for over half a century. The time is now: we need to hold police accountable to the people they serve. An Oregonian review of 40 fatal Portland police shootings found those killed were disproportionately Black, and that the majority suffered from mental illness. None of the officers who pulled a trigger in this review were indicted by a grand jury, and none were ultimately disciplined. It's time for oversight and accountability.

Although officers are rarely disciplined for using force, the settlements and jury verdicts against the city tell a different story. The top 25 verdicts and settlements have cost Portland nearly $12 million--imagine this money serving the community.

This measure is an important first step, there is much more to do, but this is one necessary and long overdue step towards real accountability.

Defense Attorneys for Real Police Accountability

Kafoury & McDougal, has the first, third, and fifth largest brutality verdicts ever won against Portland Police in state court. Despite the verdicts, no officers were disciplined; the City just wrote checks. Some of our cases:

Steelworker Jason Cox, savagely beaten, tased by several officers. Assault caught on surveillance video, now on YouTube. A juror called him "pretty compliant." Fireman wrote that police were "reluctant to give any info" on how he was injured. Verdict $562,000.

Preschool teacher Gallagher Smith questioned officers' authority to order him off the sidewalk when he was doing nothing wrong. He was tased, pepper sprayed, punched, handcuffed, hog-tied, and charged with bogus crimes. Acquitted by a jury, a civil jury awarded $306,000.

Alexander Clay, Richard Booth, and Harold Hammick, awarded $175,000 after being discriminated against and terrorized in a parking garage. Officers ordered witnesses to leave. A young college couple watched unobserved and contradicted the false story concocted by police. Hammick, held at gunpoint, was mocked, and twice punched in the groin by Sgt. Leo Besner. Besner, after costing the City more than $1 million, was twice promoted, now a lieutenant. Oregonian columnist Steve Duin wrote that officers "conjured up a fanciful backstory." Chris Davis, one of the three officers, is now the Deputy Chief of Portland Police.

Shei Meka Newmann won the Mayor's 2007 Spirit of Portland Award for her work with poor kids, saw a rough police arrest, then asked Officer Sandvik for his business card. He struck her in the chest, twisted her arm so hard she thought it would break, cuffed her, and charged her with a string of phony accusations, then failed to show for her criminal trial. Jury awarded $82,000.

Without a strong civilian police review board, nothing will change.

A National Model for Police Accountability

Each year, police nationwide kill roughly 1,100 people. One in every three people killed by a stranger in the United States is killed by police. There is virtually no accountability for this violence. 99% of these officers are not convicted of a crime and the vast majority are not disciplined. In September 2020, the Portland City Council moved to pay a settlement of $975,000 to the family of a community member killed by police during a mental health crisis. Settlements like these punish residents and taxpayers without actually addressing the underlying problem.

Over the past five years, we've examined data on policing practices across the country to identify effective solutions to end police violence and keep communities safe. We have found that there are common sense policies, that when enacted, make policing safer, for both officers and the community. Research shows when officers are not held accountable for misconduct, they continue to contribute to a culture of violence within a department - over time producing higher rates of police violence and misconduct against members of the public.

The model proposed here is the strongest in the nation. It is structurally independent of the Police Bureau and removed from the direct control of politicians. It has the necessary powers and resources to conduct thorough investigations and it is designed to have the power to enact discipline and change policy.

The "tough on crime" era in the late 20th century ushered in an unprecedented level of police militarization and overreach, making local bureaus unaccountable and unassailable.

Measure 26-217 will contribute towards creating a functional accountability system for Portland and brings together best practices from around the country into one system that could become a national model.

It is time to create a new era with the community in charge.

As members of the Oregon legal community, we stand with the community groups, faith leaders, and activists who have been advocating for reforms for decades.

We see the systemic problems in our criminal justice system and are aware of the racial biases at many different stages within the system including policing. Like you, we have also seen the videos of Portland Police using force that seem disproportionate and inappropriate by any reasonable standard.

As the Oregonian recently reported, in the last 40 fatal Portland police shootings the victims were disproportionately Black and half had mental illnesses. Not one of the 65 officers who pulled a trigger were indicted by a grand jury, and none were ultimately disciplined.

We also rarely see officers disciplined in non-lethal misconduct investigations, and yet over the last 10 years the City has paid more than $4 million dollars to the victims and families of police violence.

The message is clear: when Portland Police investigate themselves – It's no surprise that they never find wrongdoing. It is time for an independent board staffed by professional investigators to take over these functions and make sure officers who protect and serve are held accountable to the community, with citizen oversight and consequences for bad actors.

This charter change is a chance for the people of Portland to do what needs to be done to make structural change to the oversight system.

Our goal should be a community that is safer for everyone. Safer for Black Lives, safer for people living on the margins, safer for people experiencing mental health crises. In order to do that we need law enforcement that is not above the law.

Join us in voting YES for 26-217 for a more just justice system.

DIRECTOR'S OFFICE

Mental Health Advocates for Real Police Accountability

We became aware something was terribly wrong when James Chasse, Jr., was killed in 2006. Police approached him for looking "strange" near his home in the Pearl District. They beat him to death, and denied him medical treatment by fabricating stories of fictitious drug use rather than disclosing their beating and tasing. Portland's response? After nearly four years of "process," no discipline for the officers.

The pattern of Portland Police violence against people with mental illness was so extreme that in 2012, the City of Portland reached a secret settlement with the US Department of Justice, after finding a pattern of excessive force on citizens with mental illness. Unfortunately--unlike most DOJ settlements--the Portland Police maintained its own oversight.

Since Chasse's death, 30 more people with a mental health issue, alcoholism or addiction, have been killed by the Portland Police. In fact, studies have shown that use of force against persons with mental illness has actually gone up since the 2012 DOJ settlement.

We are not surprised. It is abundantly clear that all of us - including people with mental illness - are unsafe as long as the Portland Police control their own oversight.

In the United States, the power of the government comes from its citizens. We give police the enormous power to use deadly force against our citizens. It is not only our right, but our duty as citizens to ensure our police will not needlessly endanger others. When all it could take now for police to kill a citizen with impunity is they look "strange," no one is safe.

Collectively, we have been working to stop police violence against vulnerable people for decades. We believe Measure 26-217 will succeed where prior efforts have failed because it includes critical elements for real independent oversight.

Join us and Vote Yes on Measure 26-217.

Civil Rights Attorneys Say YES to Real Police Accountability

We are civil rights lawyers. Between us, we have many decades of experience in police litigation. We are among the few who have reviewed the secret materials of the Portland Police's Internal Affairs investigations. In these investigations, often the statements of police officers are treated as fact even if they are directly contradicted by other evidence. Eye-witnesses to events are often not even interviewed. The Police do not ask and answer the fundamental question of what they could have done to save a life. In short, the current police internal investigations are not real investigations, they are a sham. The investigations exist only to give a semblance of formality to clearing officers of any wrongdoing. Even in police brutality cases where jurors later award major damages, our police department nonetheless declares the claims "unsubstantiated," or "within policy."

The Portland Police are a law unto themselves. Despite over 44 Portland police involved killings since 2003, no officer in living memory has been successfully disciplined or prosecuted for using deadly force against community members. Let those facts sink in.

The result is a police department where the officers know that they can act with impunity.

Just as every democratic society demands civilian control of its military, the residents of Portland must exercise civilian control of our police department. This proposal for a community oversight board that will conduct real and thorough investigations, and then discipline officers based on their findings is a huge step forward for justice in our city. For too long, misconduct has been tolerated. Identifying misconduct and holding those responsible accountable will make our community safer.

Please join us in voting YES for real accountability!

Congressman Earl Blumenauer

For years, I have watched as the city of Portland has struggled with the issue of police accountability. Previous efforts have been victim to city bureaucracy, police union politics and ineffective half steps.

The result, is at a time when there's never been a greater need for police accountability we don't have an effective mechanism.

For the very first time, the voters are going to be given an opportunity to have their say. This police accountability review board cuts through the bureaucracy and politics to have a clear method of accountability.

At a time when Portlanders can see the urgent need for accountability in the face of clear examples that regularly cry out for action, this ballot measure gives clear accountability and has a chance because the decision has been placed directly in your hands.

Please join me in taking advantage of this opportunity vote yes for Real Police Accountability - Measure 26-217.

The demonstrated need has never been greater. Not only has the Black community been asking for this reform for more than 30 years, but almost daily we are seeing the consequences of a broken system. This proposal is the strongest opportunity to meet that need and for the very first time the decision rests in your hands...the hands of the Portland voter.

Take advantage of it by voting yes to put Portlanders in charge.

Courage,

Earl Blumenauer

Activists Demand a YES Vote for Real Police Accountability

The Portland Police Bureau disproportionately polices, harms, arrests and kills Portlanders of color. For decades Portland activists have engaged in conversations, and led demonstrations, protests, rallies, and community events demanding changes to our policing system. The city has done nothing in response. For the last three months our community has again taken to the streets to plead for change. We now have an opportunity to take a meaningful step towards rectifying this unjust system. Yes on Real Police Accountability is a first step of many.

We march for justice. Justice is impossible if the police are unaccountable. This is true on a systemic level, and on a case-by-case basis. For too long Black families like George Floyd's have had to grapple with a system that puts justice out of reach when their loved ones are killed by police. For too long Black communities have had to live under oppressive fear of the police.

Real police accountability isn't just overdue—it is urgent. The lack of accountability has been on daily display during the past three months' protests. The safety and rights of protesters, members of the press, neighbors, and bystanders have been threatened and endangered by police with little or no recourse. Every day without real accountability only increases the fear and distrust felt in communities the police are meant to serve.

As Portlanders who are actively engaging in the work of dismantling the legacy of white supremacy. This work starts with meaningful modes for resident engagement and true independent review of the police to hold them accountable for the harm caused to the community.

Labor supports Real Police Accountability

As pro-worker, pro-union organizations, we believe that part of our role is to advance social justice for all Oregonians. We are emphatically pro-accountability for our police, who, as public servants, have a responsibility to be accountable to the citizens they serve.

Real police accountability gives our community a voice in police use-of-force incidents without undercutting workers or undermining collective bargaining. Because Black lives matter to us, transparency and community oversight is key to ensuring that police live up to our community values.

With the extraordinary powers police are given to detain, arrest, and use deadly force, officers also carry grave responsibility to ensure their actions are free from racism and discrimination in any form. Real Police Accountability will provide the opportunity for officers to be heard and able to present their case in “use of force” and other incidents that could lead to discipline, protecting their union rights, while also ensuring public voice and accountability. The Board created by Real Police Accountability will also be able to hold police in managerial positions accountable for their actions.

Portland’s current system of police oversight bodies has failed to center the community, but with the oversight Board created by Real Police Accountability, we can actually hold police to the higher standard to which we know they must answer.

We support workers’ rights, we are pro-union, and we encourage a yes vote for Real Police Accountability.

Portland! Let's Join Together for Police Reform and Community Safety

As the Mayor of Portland, I am working every day to bring overdue change to our public safety systems. Working together, we have implemented de-escalation training, expanded unarmed non-emergency response, increased behavioral health units, and taken other first steps toward broader reform.

But like many in our community, I am frustrated by continued adherence to past policies and systems that have supported – and even encouraged – over-policing of Black and brown Portlanders, military-style tactics in response to civil disobedience, and an “us or them” mentality.

As I have said many times in recent weeks: I am 100% committed to reforms that end these practices, implement real and lasting structural change, and restore confidence that when any Portlander calls 9-1-1, they can feel confident that the response will be prompt, respectful, and focused on positive outcomes.

I have also made it clear that no single elected official – Mayor or otherwise – can make this happen alone.

That's why I am voting for Measure 26-217 and urge your support.

This measure gives us a chance to start making the kind of positive changes that rebuild trust and truly keep ALL Portlanders safe. This begins with looking at the foundations of policing – making sure that our officers are well trained and supported to handle tense situations and that they are held accountable when procedures and policies are violated. It means we continue working to address the mental health and addiction crises on our streets with the right response – a badge and gun aren't always the right tools for intervention. It means we have zero tolerance for racial bias and violence and live by our values of equity, inclusion, and Black Lives Matter.

Please join me and neighbors throughout Portland united for safety, equity, and justice.
