Public Comment

No public comment was submitted.

Chair Report - Andrew Holtz

Andrew Holtz shared an article from BikePortland.org titled "Advisory shoulders could unlock potential of streets in southwest Portland". Here is the link to that article.

Meeting Minutes Approval - All

Andrew Holtz called for comments on last month's meeting minutes.

Dean Derek made a motion to approve the minutes from the March BPCAC Meeting.

Joel Huffman seconded the motion.

With no objections, the motion was carried and the minutes were approved.

Asset Management - Chet Hagen, Multnomah County

Chet Hagen, Asset Management Program Manager with Multnomah County, provided the group with a presentation about asset management in Multnomah County Transportation. This was followed by an opportunity to comment or ask questions.

County Transit/Job Connector Shuttle – MaryJo Andersen, Multnomah County

MaryJo provided a presentation on the Alderwood-Cornfoot-Columbia Job Connector Shuttle. It was followed with an opportunity for comment and questions.

It was suggested that Multnomah County check with PBOT about options for tracking data on use of the shuttles in addition to the targeted Facebook surveys..

Staff Updates - MaryJo Andersen, Multnomah County

MaryJo Andersen provided the group with the following updates:

- Buxton and HCRH intersection - next month
- OATS conference, the County will pay for 2 members to attend - thanks to Art and Andrew
- SRTS and Pear - volunteer opportunities
- Sauvie Island - ODOT will be doing the speed study sometime this year - unable to choose when and only one time

MaryJo will follow up with Michael Rubenstein to get clarification on what is wanted and what can be provided for the speed study.

Andrew Holtz would like more information at the May meeting on the City/County Regional Transportation Forum scheduled for May 26th. MaryJo will bring more information to the May meeting.
