Program Summary

Single cell dorm housing is utilized for offenders requiring a higher level of control and supervision. These dorms offer a more restrictive, single cell environment which provides for enhanced security. Adults in custody in these units are regularly reviewed by the MCSO Classification unit for eligibility to transition to open dorm housing, our least restrictive housing possible while in custody. Dorms 14 and 15 are currently integrated as part of our COVID19 response and primarily serve as transitional housing units for adults in custody under an observation period prior to movement to longer term housing options.

The Inverness Jail is a medium security, primarily direct supervision, dormitory style facility. In addition to the open dorm style housing units, there are several single cell housing units. The design and population of Inverness Jail offer the greatest opportunities for programs, education and work opportunities for those in custody. Adults in custody are afforded opportunities to exercise their faith while housed at MCIJ, to include offering religious diets and available faith related items and materials. Language interpreter services and ADA accommodations are available and provided to meet individual needs. MCSO strives to ensure everyone in our care is afforded the opportunity for medical, mental health and emotional support.

The program's mission is to ensure that adults in custody are treated with dignity and respect during a difficult time as they work through court processes, serve a sentence or a sanction. Staff work to provide opportunities for all adults in custody to have fair and equitable access to a variety of programs and services. Additionally, individuals are provided opportunities to actively engage in addressing their individual needs while in custody in a safe, encouraging and engaging environment. Funding for MCIJ and the Multnomah County Detention Center (MCDC) aid the Sheriff in managing the incarcerated population and reduces the potential for emergency releases.
