As a second generation Vietnamese-American with over 10 years of experience working with the public education system, I know what it takes for kids from low-income and diverse backgrounds to be able to show up in school ready to learn.

As a school board member, I will work on:

- Ensuring all kids experience a smooth transition back to full time school
- Fighting for comprehensive health education, access to mental health care
- Utilizing restorative justice to break the 'schools to prison pipeline'
