I'm Amanda Squiemphen-Yazzie, a proud Warm Springs, Wasco, Navajo, Yakama woman. I invest my time in the Gresham community, the traditional homelands of the Chinook & Cowlitz people. I'm ready to utilize both my lived and professional experiences to invest in the next generation of leaders and ensure every student can achieve their full excellence.

As your MESD Director, I will:

- Break down learning barriers for kids and make decisions with a trauma-informed lens.
- Build transparent relationships where every voice has a say in decisions.
- Recruit and retain diverse faculty and staff that reflect our community.
- Uplift an equitable system that is rooted in restorative justice to keep our kids learning and in school.
- Ensure every student has access to comprehensive and quality health services.
