As a board member of MESD I will:

- Support the mission of MESD and hold the district accountable to it's mission
- Work collaboratively with others
- Exercise fiscal oversight to ensure that tax dollars are used efficiently and effectively
- Demand honesty and transparency
- Prioritize equitable education so that all students have the opportunity to reach their potential

In my 30-year career in education, I taught every grade level from 4th grade through community college. My experience as a front-line educator provides me with first-hand knowledge of how policy decisions affect the classroom and student outcomes. Additionally, my prior experience on the MHCC Board and my current experience on the MESD Board have given me further insight into budgeting and audits, collective bargaining, visioning, and accountability.
