OPTIONAL INFORMATION

The past year has been more challenging than any of us could have anticipated. While some elected officials have used the reopening of school buildings as a political tool, we have struggled as working families to care for our children in the middle of unemployment, uncertain childcare, and mixed messages about public health and safety. As parents of a third-grader and a preschooler, my wife and I know what the pandemic has cost us.

Yet our Parkrose community has shown up for each other in creative and life-giving ways. We have shared food boxes, sewn masks, delivered necessities to neighbors, donated books and blankets. We have raised our voices for an end to racism and violence.

I am so proud of our Parkrose students, teachers, parents, district staff, and superintendent. THANK YOU for working so hard, for taking the time to listen, for looking out for the most vulnerable. Thank you for showing up to board meetings, listening sessions, and parent group fundraisers. Thank you for speaking up and asking questions, even though answers aren't easy or always available. Our kids need us to be committed to Parkrose. We are ALL IN for them.

I am honored to serve you on the Parkrose School Board of Education. You can count on me to continue to be ALL IN for our students. There is big work ahead: safely reopening our buildings, elementary physical education this fall (hooray!), improved access to transportation, ongoing racial equity work and legislative advocacy for funding. WE CAN DO THIS. I believe in us.

This pandemic has shown us that we ARE powerful. We are resilient. We are #parkrostrong.
