Allison's Commitment to Riverdale

Education

- Students deserve access to a full-time education with a live teacher. I will make student-centered decisions based in science.
- Our district will benefit from increased academic offerings including TAG, languages and electives, college prep coursework, enhanced STEM and programs that make Riverdale unique.

Excellence

- Riverdale schools must differentiate themselves as programs of academic excellence, demonstrating the strength of public schools.
- Our families and community are our biggest assets. I will embrace creative thinking and collaboration to utilize our many talents and resources.

Leadership

- The role of the School Board is to create a strategic vision for the district and oversee its execution by the Superintendent.
- Planning to restore full school days must be fiscally responsible and consistent with the long-term financial stability of our district.
- The school board must establish a culture of compliance to ensure accountability and legal and ethical integrity.

Transparency

- Frequency and quality of communications must be increased to improve the district-community relationship.
- I will encourage regular opportunities for dialogue between community members and district leadership that demonstrate an appreciation for diverse viewpoints.

Riverdale Volunteer Positions

- Riverdale Foundation: Annual Campaign Acting Co-Chair, Director, Call Captain
- Riverdale School District: Strategic Development Planning Team
- Riverdale Grade School PTC Board: President, President Elect, Co-Chair of Communications
- Riverdale Grade School Auction: Co-Chair, Procurement Chair, Co-Chair of Communications

"She stepped in as my interim co-chair on the Riverdale Foundation Annual Campaign during the most challenging fundraising year on record, bringing to the table a wealth of innovative ideas and thought-provoking interpretations. She has incredible empathy and a vision for our schools that ascribes to excellence in education and our shared community experience. We cannot recommend her highly enough for the position of school board member."
