PERSONAL STATEMENT: My first priority in life is family. With that being said my relationships with friends and community members mean the world to me because on many levels I consider our community to be an extension of my family. You are the people who lend a hand, go to the parades, festivals, community events and show up. You are also the people who expect the City Council to work to create the best possible future for Troutdale. ← mean

Living here is a privilege. I value our community and citizens immensely. What I like best is walking around town, talking with my neighbors, meeting new people and most importantly listening to everyone with inclusion.

Strong →

Strong leadership comes from dedicated people who genuinely care, have strong work ethic, are always mindful of the future, commit and follow through. Making equitable, strategic decisions that preserve the livability of our town is a priority. These are characteristics that I will bring to Council.

My strongest values are to live honestly with integrity and to strive to be a humble leader. I am excited to become a City Councilor and serve you. Thank you for taking time to review my qualifications, and also for your vote.
